

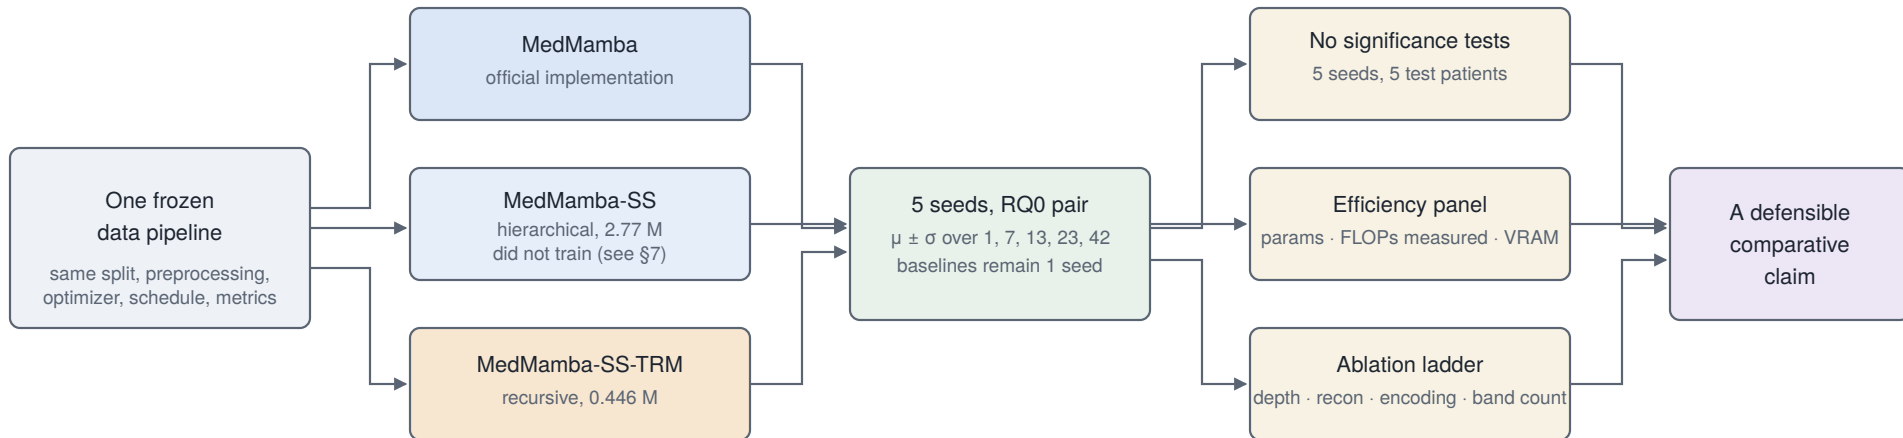

Fig. 5 — The controlled comparison, as run

All three columns have now been run. The efficiency panel is measured rather than estimated, and the ablation ladder is complete.

Two limits are stated rather than designed away: the hierarchical arm did not train under this recipe, and no significance test is performed anywhere.